

Position Title: Clinical Research Nurse – Thoracic, Head and Neck

Organization: Fred Hutchinson Cancer Center, Seattle, Washington

Position Description:

- Maintains equilibrium between care of the research participant, protocol requirements and compliance.
- Utilizes clinical research nursing expertise and judgement to advocate for others as needed
- Provides nursing and clinical operations expertise to the research team
- Partners with clinic nursing and study team to provide research specific patient and family education and documents appropriately
- Partners with clinic nurses to bridge patient from protocol requirements to clinical care
- Assists Investigators and study teams in pre-screening patients and confirming eligibility
- Supports investigators and study teams in adverse event assessments and documents appropriately for protocol required data entry
  - Understands CTCAE grading criteria to assist with proper documentation
  - Communicates and coordinates effectively with clinic nurse for symptom management, or clinical follow-up, providing the clinic nurse with all applicable protocol specific information needed for patient care
  - Assists PI/Study team in Serious Adverse Event Reporting
- Documents in EHR and includes research protocol details needed for data entry and compliance
- Supports investigators and study teams in reviewing and documenting concomitant medications
- Reconciles protocol required medication diaries
- Supports research coordinators in protocol required clinic visits when research nursing support is needed
- Supports PI in ensuring patient safety and protocol compliance
- Communicates investigational medication holds/modifications to patients as delegated by PI and within scope
- Facilitates communication and coordination with multi-disciplinary teams as needed
- Provides research education to clinical staff as appropriate
- Informs investigators and study staff of institutional policies and procedures that support protocol compliance, patient safety and clinical operation's efficiencies.
- Identifies problems or obstacles in the systems and procedures related to research operations, and communicates to the CORS Nurse Manager and study investigators as appropriate
- Participates in study required monitoring visits specific to the CRN job description when appropriate
- Attends Beacon orders validation meetings as appropriate

Qualifications:

- Licensed as a Registered Nurse in the state of Washington
- Baccalaureate degree required
- Minimum 3 years of recent oncology experience

Type: Permanent, Full Time

How to Apply: <https://careers-scca.icims.com/jobs/23404/clinical-research-nurse-thoracic%2c-head-and-neck/job>

Hiring Manager: Elizabeth Stohr, MSN, RN eastohr@seattlecca.org